Pickin' & Pedalin' Tour

Come for a great ride and spend the day - you'll experience Southern hospitality at its best!

The Ride: Begins at "Chestnut and Water Street" in Henderson.

You'll travel down Main Street and see some beautiful, historic homes on your way to reaching some of the flattest and best county roads a bicyclist could ever want. Traffic is generally light, but all riders must always exercise caution.

Rest Stops: There are rest stops feature live Bluegrass entertainment and we provide refreshments and restrooms. The event is conducted by bicycling enthusiasts just like you, so they are in tune with your needs.

Hungry? From 7 AM to 9 AM, the Festival has an all-you-can-eat egg, sausage, and pancake breakfast ($6.50 adults and $4.00 for the kids). Other food concessions open at 10:30 AM. with BBQ, burgers, beef brisket, and much more! There's something for everyone.

Music! You're in luck! This year marks the 2nd annual Bluegrass in the Park Folklife Festival. The music starts at 7 AM and runs until midnight. Great musicians, great sound system, and best of all, it's FREE!
